

Brown Bag Crisps are brought to you from our small family-run company in Surrey. Our crisps have taken many sleepless nights to perfect. It all started in our kitchen, where Phil could be found until the small hours cooking and seasoning potato crisps until he found the perfect recipes.

We've now moved out of the kitchen but the Brown Bag ethos remains the same... to bring you delicious hand-cooked potato crisps where the taste and crunch are never compromised.

To make these crisps, the best British potatoes are gently hand cooked in small batches. They are then sprinkled with our very own oak smoked chilli seasoning where the natural smoked flavour from sustainable oak perfectly complements the punch from the Scotch Bonnet chillies.

We hope you love Brown Bag Crisps as much as we do. Thank you for buying them and happy munching!
