

Brown Bag Crisps are brought to you from our small family-run company in Surrey. Our crisps have taken many sleepless nights to perfect. It all started in our kitchen, where Phil could be found until the small hours cooking and seasoning potato crisps until he found the perfect recipes.

We've now moved out of the kitchen but the Brown Bag ethos remains the same... to bring you delicious hand-cooked potato crisps where the taste and crunch are never compromised.

To make these crisps, the best British potatoes are gently hand cooked in small batches. They are then sprinkled with sea salt for a simple but delicious potato crisp.

We hope you love Brown Bag Crisps as much as we do. Thank you for buying them and happy munching!
