WELCOME TO LEGO® ART

Translating an iconic work of art into a buildable LEGO® model speaks directly to the core of LEGO Art. With its dynamic lines and joyful motif, Keith Haring – Dancing Figures epitomises the artist's universal messages of love, community and open creativity. The floor is yours – join the dance!

BUILT TO MOVE

Great art moves you. Your LEGO® Art set is built to move, too. With five distinct figures, each with their own instructions, you can invite others to join your building party. Display your figures on the colour-coded stands, or let them dance from wall to wall, in any order, together or separately.

KEITH HARING

Keith Haring (1958-1990) was a trailblazing artist of the 1980s, and his iconic artwork and subway chalk drawings in New York City captivated a diverse, global audience. Between 1982 and 1989, Haring created more than 50 public artworks around the world, and his work was showcased in more than one hundred exhibitions. He held children's workshops and created imagery for literacy programmes. His bold, vibrant imagery has become an enduring visual language, inspiring his own and future generations of artists, fashion designers and musicians.

MAKE YOUR ART POP

To capture Keith Haring's freeform 2D style in 3D LEGO® form, we had to rethink how we use our geometric building grid. The result is five dynamic, standalone characters from Haring's famous pop art piece, recreated in striking LEGO colours, with sideways construction and unexpected angles that make up a fluid, playful effect. We even removed all frames and backgrounds so you can set your art free and let it dance through your house!
